

December 13, 2018

Dear Members & Friends of Prologue,

What a fabulous beginning we've had to our 2018-2019 season: We opened with an August special event where we spent the evening with our very own Dave Lawrence. Then we visited with Jack Davis in October, Doris Kearns Goodwin and a full house in November, and Antony Beevor in early December. Centered on a variety of topics, each event was unique & truly enjoyable!

At this moment, our spring schedule is still being finalized: On January 31, we will meet in the new ballroom at Riviera Country Club (1155 Blue Road, Coral Gables) when we host Andrew Roberts with his book, "Churchill: Walking with Destiny." We are moving to a new venue beginning with our February 12 luncheon (keep reading for more details), when we will host Dr. Doug Bradburn, new president and chief executive officer of George Washington's Mount Vernon. The book accompanying our February luncheon, as well as the details regarding our remaining spring events, will be announced as soon as they are confirmed.

Looking forward to spring, I am pleased to announce that The Prologue Society has cemented a new partnership with University of Miami. This includes moving our monthly luncheons to their new, beautifully designed Newman Alumni Center (6200 San Amaro Drive, Coral Gables) beginning with our February luncheon. Their large dining space can hold as many as 200 people, giving us room for growth.

With growth in mind, having the University as a new sponsor is without a doubt a feather in our cap, but in addition to that the University will aid in growing Prologue by inviting to our luncheons representatives from various departments, students, and members of the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute.

Also with growth in mind and on behalf of your Prologue Board, let me say that we love seeing new faces & meeting new people! We sincerely appreciate you and that you frequently invite friends to Prologue, helping us to share just how enjoyable our monthly luncheons are.

I hope that you enjoyed the fall luncheons that you attended and that you are already a Prologue member. If you are new to Prologue or are not currently a member, I'd like to encourage you to become a Spring 2019 member and also to invite your friends to join you in doing so (the half-season fee options are $275 for a couple in the same household, or $175 for an individual). To become a member, visit us online at ThePrologueSociety.org or reach out to Debbie Hirshson at ThePrologueSociety@gmail.com or 786-529-0990 so that she may assist you.

Best wishes for a wonderful holiday season and I look forward to seeing you in the new year!

Sincerely,

Teresita
